

XM Radio is a good example of the free enterprise system. Stopping the progression of new technology that benefits society is not something that laws should be developed to stop. This technology only benefits society and enhances lifestyles of millions of Americans so far. Please allow satellite radio companies to develop local weather and traffic technology!